

White Ribbon 2022 PCANZ Resources

A message from PCANZ Moderator Rt Rev Hamish Galloway

I want to strongly commend to our churches the work of the new Presbyterian Church White Ribbon Ambassador, the Rev Hana Popea.

Hana is working on resources that can be used to combat family violence in our communities. This is such a key area for the Church to be working in. Please look out for ways you can use in your church, around 25 November White Ribbon Day, the resources Hana is producing.

2022 video resources for parishes

Recently, PCANZ White Ribbon Ambassador Rev Hana Popea recorded zoom video calls with Presbyterians asking three questions she had prepared on what Presbyterians think could or does stop or prevent domestic and family violence towards women and children.

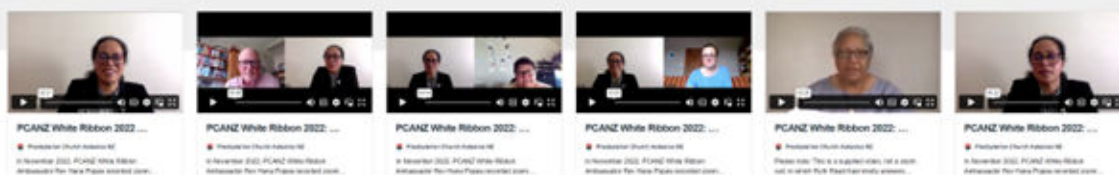

Hana recorded herself answering the questions, and then put them to PCANZ Moderator Right Rev Hamish Galloway, Ruth Risati Kaio, Honey Thrupp, and Hannah North. See video links below.

Over time, as Hana records further zoom talks with more Presbyterians, she intends for the videos to form part of a library of White Ribbon video resources for the Church. She wants to hear from the wider PCANZ and share the ideas and views of a range of ages, cultures, and in many languages. If you would like to participate in a video please get in touch.
